

eve supports women and children who are victims of domestic violence and abuse to develop the skills, knowledge, and attributes necessary to become survivors. We provide crisis refuge support and community-based support through our own intensive, holistic, rehabilitation and recovery programme called Restored.

Volunteer Counsellor/s required for charity working with women and children fleeing Domestic Abuse

eve is looking for an experienced and qualified volunteer counsellor to support our clients who have experienced trauma due to domestic violence and abuse. You will hold a degree or diploma in counselling and/or psychotherapy and will have accumulated at least 100 hours of post-qualified experience of supervised client work. In addition, you will be Accredited or working towards accreditation with BACP, UKCP, ACC or equivalent. You must be in sympathy with our Christian ethos and be able to work in a boundaried, confidential and ethical way, adhering to the BACP Ethical Framework for Good Practice.

Full training on all aspects of domestic abuse will be provided through our excellent and comprehensive training programme as well as supervision and support.

Part time hours to suit. A full role description is available on request.

This voluntary post is exempt under Section 7(2) d of the Sex Discrimination Act and is subject to a background disclosure check at Enhanced level by the Disclosure and Barring Scheme before any appointment can be confirmed.

If you are interested in applying for this voluntary post, email volunteers@eve.org.uk for an application form/informal discussion.

As an employer eve strives to achieve diversity among its staff which reflects the communities it serves.

eve is the working name of Nene Valley Christian Family Refuge

Charity Number 298154

Company Registered in England and Wales 2226878